

Raft(v.1.03) - Early Access Tool

SURVIVING Raft's NEW Chapter 2 UPDATE In search of the flooded city apocalypse. Q: When you play .exe files, you can use different types of files to create a map or create different types of content. How can we create a map based on .exe files? A: You can use the map editor installed in the game folder to create map files using the various file types listed in the documentation. As an example, map files that are used to create a map, including .xm, .xml, .jnx, .xls, and .csv are the main file types of .exe files.
